SIRA HORRADARN

Mobile: 206-457-6133
sirah@cs.washington.edu

OBJECTIVE

Seeking an entry-level internship to help explore career path, as well as utilize my strong background in math and technical knowledge of computer science to implement reliable software.

EDUCATION

University of Washington, Seattle
Bachelor of Science degree, Computer Science   Expected Graduation June 2019

GPA: 3.95, 2015-2016 Annual Dean's List

Courses included:

- Introduction to Programming in Java I, II
- Web Programming
- Calculus I, II, III
- Mechanics Physics
- Foundations of Computing I
- Linear Algebra

SKILLS

- Platforms: Windows, Mac, Linux
- Languages: Java, Python, HTML, CSS, PHP (Some familiarity)
- Applications: Git/GitHub, Eclipse, Microsoft Office, Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Lightroom, Final Cut Pro
- Others: Photography, Troubleshooting, Teamwork

WORK EXPERIENCE

Student Dining Staff, Housing and Food Service   November 2015 – June 2016
- Prepared and served food, as well as interacted with customer to provide excellent customer service.
- Communicated with cooks and coworkers to ensure the consistency of food and service.

Photojournalist, The Daily Newspaper   April 2016 – Present
- Photographed and published photos coverage of UW news and events in photojournalistic manner.

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

Session Assistant Volunteer, 19th Undergraduate Research Symposium   May 2016
- Assisted oral presenters and moderators with technical equipment and kept track of presentation time.
- Prepared and set up the conference room to ensure no technical failure happened.

ACTIVITIES

- Social Media Officer, Society of Asian Scientists and Engineers, Student Chapter, 2016-2017
- General Officer, Society of Asian Scientists and Engineers, Student Chapter, 2015-2016
- Published photo essay of vacation trip to Laos on Voyage UW, a student-run travel magazine

AWARDS

- Participant in the 1st World Science Conference Israel (WSCI 2015)   August 2015